Let's Start!

There's an exhibit on at the museum. What's it about?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- Do you like to go to museums? Why or why not?
- What exhibits do you like to see?

Can Do Statements

- I can make suggestions.
- I can talk about customs and traditions.
- I can ask who, what, when, where questions.

Let's Explore!

Aunt Nelly tells Vanessa about Indian art traditions!

* A "tradition" is a long-established custom.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Aunt Nelly: Vanessa, there's an exhibit on Indian art at the museum nearby. Shall we go?
- Vanessa: Sure, let's go. I really don't know much about Indian art but I'm curious to learn.
- Aunt Nelly: Indian art is colorful. Bright colors are found in many paintings.
- Vanessa: Is the color red popular in India?
- Aunt Nelly: Red is symbolic in Indian culture. You may notice lots of trees, water, lions, and elephants. These are common elements in Indian art. You should look for these.
- Vanessa: I see. Is this museum far? We could go see the exhibit another day.
- Aunt Nelly: It's past this corner shop.
- Vanessa: Around the corner?
- Aunt Nelly: Yes, beside the post office.
- Vanessa: There's an ice cream parlor across that street. Let's go there after or maybe we can go to the bakery.

Let's Practice!
