Let's Start!

What's happening in San Francisco this weekend?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- What festivals do you have in your city?
- Do you like to attend the festivals? Why or why not?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about shops and places in a town.
- I can ask for and give directions.
- I can tell someone where something is located.

Let's Explore!

Vanessa is walking around in San Fran.

* A nickname for San Francisco.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: Hmm ... what's that banner say? The San Francisco Festival of India is coming! That's the celebration of Indian heritage and culture. I wonder where it's happening.
- Stranger: Excuse me, Miss? Are you going to attend our festival?
- Vanessa: I would like to. What can I do there?
- Stranger: Attendees can enjoy a parade, a film festival, an arts and crafts bazaar, a bevy of yummy food options and much more.
- Vanessa: Sounds great! Where is it?
- Stranger: It takes place at the park behind City Hall.
- Vanessa: How do I get there from here?
- Stranger: You see where the florist is?
- Vanessa: Yes.
- Stranger: Make a right at that corner. Walk towards the bakery. Go past the bookstore. Walk under the banner. Then, cross the bridge.

Let's Practice!

Sally wants to go to the festival. Where is it?

Instructions: Read the dialogue again. Circle the mistakes in the paragraph. Correct the directions.

The festival takes place at the bazaar behind City Hall. There is an arts and crafts stall.

Make a right at the corner by the florist. Walk towards the bookstore, past the bakery.

Then, cross the bridge.

Let's Practice!

Let's take a walk in the city!

Instructions: Read the dialogue. Read each clue in the squares. Fill in the blanks using the clues. Check off the squares as you use the words.

1. It takes place at the park _____ the City Hall.
2. Make a right ____ the corner by the florist.
3. Walk _____ the bakery.
