Let's Start!

Necklaces, bracelets and scarves! What's this exhibit about?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

With your partner:

- What kind of art do you like?
- How can you describe the art from your country? Is it colorful?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about things in a general or specific way.
- I can talk about customs and traditions.
- I can make suggestions.

Let's Explore!

Aunt Nelly and Vanessa are at the museum, checking out some Indian art!

* This means to look.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: Aunt Nelly, let's look at another painting. Doesn't that one look interesting?
- Aunt Nelly: Yes. In general, Indian art can be divided into three groups: the senses, the emotions, and the spirit. Shall we go that way?
- Vanessa: Yes, there's a jewelry display there. I want to check it out!
- Aunt Nelly: India is well-known for their beautiful jewelry and textiles. Look here, Vanessa.
- Vanessa: Did a jeweler make this? How'd they do that?
- Aunt Nelly: An Indian jeweler can create jewelry using century-old techniques.
- Vanessa: Wow! Are there any scarves over there?
- Aunt Nelly: Let's take a look. Those look like shawls. India is famous for its beautiful silk, wool, and cotton textiles, including these colorful shawls from the Kashmir region.
- Vanessa: I would love to get one.
- Aunt Nelly: Mmhmm. We could go to India some day.

Let's Practice!

Let's talk about things at the exhibit like the jewelry!
