

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

• Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Let's learn about Indian food!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about food.
- I can give simple advice.
- I can express general quantities.

Ask your partner:

- Do you like to eat Indian food? Why or why not?
- What do you like or not like about it?
- If you don't eat Indian food, would you like to try it?

Let's Explore!

Many different foods come from India. In fact, many spices come from India.

* "In fact" is an expression you use to say something is true.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

There is a range of food that comes from India. From Northern India, you can enjoy the careful mixture of many spices. You should taste some naan. From Southern India, you can try hot, spicy food. You can try a variety of sweet dishes from the western coast of India. You should definitely try rasmalai.

Do you like seafood? You should try one of the many seafood dishes from the East. You should have a vegetarian dish. There are many options that don't contain meat. In fact, many Indian dishes contain many vegetables and not much meat.

A popular ingredient used in vegetarian dishes is paneer, a type of cheese. Besides paneer, there isn't much cheese in Indian food.

Let's Practice!

That's too much meat! Where are all the vegetables?

Instructions: Choose the correct answer to complete the sentence. Use one of the words in brackets.

1. You can enjoy the careful mixture of _____ spices. (many / much)
2. You can try one of the _____ sweet dishes from the Western coast of India. (many / much)
3. Many Indian dishes contain _____ vegetables and not _____ meat. (many / much)
4. There are _____ options that don't contain meat. (many / much)
5. There isn't _____ cheese in Indian food. (many / much)

Let's Practice!

All these dishes! Which one should I choose?

Instructions: Read the dialogue. Read each clue. Use the words from the squares to complete the sentences. Check off the correct square that answers each question.

1. From Northern India, you can enjoy the _____ of many spices.
2. From _____ India, you can try hot, spicy food.
3. From the western coast of India, you can try a variety of _____.
4. You should try _____ from the East.
5. A popular ingredient used in vegetarian dishes is _____.

Indian	Western	naan
careful mixture	✓	paneer
a seafood dish	Southern	sweet dishes

Extension Activity

Describe a dish from India!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Go on the Internet and find a dish from India.
- Answer these questions:
 - Which part of India is it from?
 - Is it sweet or spicy?
 - What are the ingredients? How much do you use of each ingredient?
 - Why should a person try it?
- Write a paragraph about it.
- Read it aloud to your class.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I read about food from India.

☐ ☐

I talk about the taste, ingredients and quantities in a recipe.

☐ ☐

I write a paragraph about food.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- Indian (adjective): relating to India
e.g. There are many different kinds of Indian food.
- naan (noun): a type of flat bread
e.g. You should try some naan with butter.
- northern (adjective): in or from the north of a country
e.g. In Northern India, you can enjoy many spices.
- southern (adjective): in or from the south of a country
e.g. From Southern India, you can try spicy food.
- western (adjective): in or from the west of a country
e.g. Try sweet dishes from the Western coast of India.
- range (noun): a variety of things from the same group
e.g. There is a wide range of Indian food.
- careful (adjective): paying attention to details
e.g. You can enjoy the careful mixtures of spices.
- paneer (noun): a type of soft cheese
e.g. A popular ingredient used in vegetarian dishes is paneer.

Learning Points

Giving Advice

You can use the modal should to give advice.

You can use these phrases too:

- Why don't you try something new?
- How about trying spicy food?

Subject	Modal	Base Form of Verb	Object
I You He/She	should shouldn't should not	try taste	spicy food. sweet dishes.

Much vs. Many

Much and many are quantifiers.

You use many with count nouns to talk about the number of items.

Example: Do you have many carrots?

You use much with non-count nouns to talk about the amount or quantity of an item.

Example: Do you have much garlic?

Count Nouns	Non-Count Nouns
dishes, carrots, onions, tomatoes, peppers, vegetables, spices	milk, cheese, rice, beef, oil, garlic, meat, salt, pork

Examples:

- There are many dishes from India.
- They contain many vegetables.
- Some dishes don't have much meat in them.
- There is not much rice here.

